If i could go any place other than i would have to be the mall because all the people new games every day the store

Some people are nice and other people are just plain mean to everybody. Erotic people are always coming pushing that door open. If you have ever been to the mall you would know what i am talking about. Some people are seller men and when you in front of them they will try to spray over. One time they spray me in the mouth and then i got sick. Kids are getting every five seconds; parents don't where they're kids are.

Have you ever been to the mall well i have it is really big. To crowd for me but it still every change is getting the food court is every popular but i wish game person myself like all kinds of different games.
But later at you ever were.

Score Point: 2

This response is considered flawed. A low degree of proficiency is reflected. The writer identifies the mall as a place to visit and provides reasons to support this choice (all the people, new games everyday, and the food court). The writer includes some details to develop the response. However, the lack of organization and specificity cause clarity problems (erotic people are always coming pushing that door open). In addition, there are serious errors in writing conventions.
